

Daily Prayer

SATURDAY, JULY 18

Today's prayer is based on I Timothy 3.16, ESV.

Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness:

The truth, Lord, is our ancestors in the faith
saw you with their own eyes.

You, the living God,

He was manifested in the flesh,

in the flesh in the person of Jesus

vindicated by the Spirit,

proven to be God in the flesh by your Spirit's testimony.

seen by angels,

The angels rejoiced to see Jesus' day,

proclaimed among the nations,

the apostles spread the word to the known world,

believed on in the world,

people from every place and of every tongue believed in him

taken up in glory.

and he was taken up on high in glory.

Lord, you are the God who has done this.

You are the One that sent your Messiah to redeem us.

You are the One in whom we live, move and have our being.

You are the One who bought back what was lost - our souls.

You are the only One who has the right, authority

and power to enforce how we should live our lives.

You are the One who has promised life in its fullness

to those who trust in you.

Lord, by your powerful Spirit,

so work in my life that I may walk in the fullness

of what you have in store for your people,

for Jesus and His kingdom's sake. Amen.

personalized by ptc

He wishes to give who advises us to ask.

Augustine

selected by ptc