

We Welcome Tim VanNasdale

Tim VanNasdale is a native of Coldwater, Michigan. He began studying piano at the age of six and continued a focus on classical piano through his undergraduate studies. Tim graduated with a B.M. in Piano Performance from Western Michigan University in 2006. While studying at Western, Tim began teaching private piano lessons and also served as pianist and accompanist for First Presbyterian Church in Coldwater, Michigan. After completing his degree, Tim then went on to study and get a teaching certification in Vocal Education from Spring Arbor University. After completion of that program, Tim moved to Chicago and continued teaching private music lessons in piano, voice, and guitar as well as directing musical theater. He also served as the director of music for the First Presbyterian Church in Homewood, Illinois for seven years. In his spare time, Tim is passionate about studying and leading classes in Christian Apologetics.
